

Annelle Staal Artist Bio

Last Updated November, 2021

Nashville recording artist Annelle Staal brings her stories to life with an original, soulful sound. Her distinctly rich vocals and lyrically driven studio projects mark her as a new artist to watch. Annelle's acoustic studio project "Heart on My Sleeve," released in the October of 2020, and was quickly followed with her debut holiday single "Mr. Christmas." The bluesy, big-band tune captivated audiences with its heart-felt music video during the 2020 holiday season.

The young artist's debut full-length album is anticipated in 2022, and her 2021 singles "Lemon Days" and "Indoors" promise a fuller version of her smooth, sultry sound and imagery-rich lyrical voice.

Annelle has been featured on ABC news for her innovation and creativity during the challenges of 2020, and on The Mesh and Buzz Feed for her humor and spirit. She is now streaming live virtual shows on Twitch TV, making artist interaction, her studio sound, and the stories behind her work accessible to an international audience.

Annelle has raised over $10,000 in benefit concerts and continues to use her platform to advocate for mental wellness.

Abbreviated Bio

Nashville recording artist Annelle Staal brings her stories to life with an original, soulful sound. Her distinctly rich vocals and lyrically driven studio projects translate well to the stage, as the young artist has performed over 100 shows across the US. Annelle's acoustic studio project "Heart on My Sleeve," released in the October of 2020, and was quickly followed with her debut holiday single "Mr. Christmas." Her debut full-length album is anticipated in 2022, and her 2021 single "Lemon Days" and "Indoors" promise a fuller version of her signature style. Annelle makes her live studio sound accessible via Twitch TV, a streaming platform that brings live content to viewers around the globe. Featured on ABC News, The Mesh and Buzz feed for her humor and spirit, Annelle is an indie artist to watch.

Longer Bio

Annelle Staal is a singer-songwriter with influences in soul, folk & pop. An old soul who wears her "heart on her sleeve," Annelle grew up a military brat and carries the puzzle pieces of her childhood with her. Passionate about capturing the human experience in her writing, Annelle has a "wide wing span" of styles—ranging from atmospheric ballads, sunny acoustics, and big band blues.

In 2017, the young songwriter released her first studio project "MARS," a dark-pop EP capturing the turmoil of love and growth. Working, performing and writing in Nashville, TN, for several years following, Annelle's passion for live entertainment grew.

When 2020's tumultuous beginning shook the world, Annelle's innovative spirit propelled her to reach her audience in a new way. Pioneering the world of Twitch.TV, the songwriter now hosts a live night show 4 days a week to a growing global audience.

Annelle's second studio project "Heart on My Sleeve" released in October 2020. The small album strips both her heart and sound bare, and serves as a commentary on self love, discovery and courage. "Mr. Christmas," Annelle's debut holiday single charmed the internet in 2020, with a goofy music video and relatable story.

Featured on BuzzFeed, The Mesh and ABC news for her humor and creative spirit, Annelle is an artist to watch. Catch her live at Twitch.tv/annelle, or visit annellestaal.com for more.